W: Thanks. I'd love to. What's on?
M: Stopper's latest play.
W: Oh, Sonny told me it was very good.

Text 7（116 词　学生使用智能手机的困扰　135 词/分钟）

W: Hi, Sam. How is your daughter doing at school?
M: Well, since I bought a smartphone for Julia last summer, it seems the phone has become an extension of her arm. And it has made it impossible for her to concentrate. That really upsets me.
W: You are not alone in that. It is said that 95% of teenagers either own or have access to a smartphone. Some schools have put in place policies, banning or controlling phone use during school hours.
M: I'm all in favor of these policies.
W: Yeah, more and more schools have begun doing this. A friend of mine works at a school, and he told me that these policies had brought about positive changes.

W: We play table tennis all the time. We'd like to go do some outdoor activities for a change, like rock climbing and horseback riding.
M: Oh, Jessie, I thought the point of this vacation was to relax.
W: Well, we can do something less demanding tomorrow. How about boating on the lake? What do you think?

M: I really enjoy my work here. I put in effort for 5 years to gain more experience, but there seems no hope of being promoted.
W: What would help you decide to stay?
M: I would consider staying if I could change my position. I would love working in this same department, but I would like to be doing something different. And they offered me 6% more than my present salary.
W: When do you have to tell them your decision?
M: They want me to respond by Friday.
W: Let me see. I'll talk to the human resources director and let you know the result on Thursday. Can you wait until then?

Text 10（173 词　暑期夏令营介绍　110 词/分钟）

W: Hello everyone. Welcome to Creative Day School. This summer we provide two full-time summer camp programs. Both will last the entire time the children are out of school. Our first summer camp is for our four-year-olds, called Mini Camp. This Mini Camp will still have their normal everyday schedule with a lot of fun activities. At least once a week, our mini campers will go on a field trip. These field trips could consist of a day at the beach or exploring the natural museum. Our Older Summer Camp is provided for ages 5 through 12. There are scheduled summer fun activities and games. The children will participate in art, outdoor play, games and much more. Swimming at a nearby pool is often a weekly field trip for ages 6 and up. Other field trips could include bowling, a day at the movies or a picnic in the park. Permission of parents and activity fees are required to participate in all field trips. Now let's watch a five-minute film about last year's programs.
